

AMENDED AND RESTATED CHARTER OF
THE NOMINATING, GOVERNANCE AND CORPORATE RESPONSIBILITY COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF GREENLIGHT CAPITAL RE, LTD.

This charter (the “Charter”) identifies the purpose, composition, meeting requirements, committee responsibilities, annual evaluation procedures and studies of the Nominating, Governance and Corporate Responsibility Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Greenlight Capital Re, Ltd. (the “Company”), which is incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands.

I. PURPOSE

The Committee has been established to (a) assist the Board in identifying individuals qualified to serve as members of the Board, (b) develop and recommend to the Board a set of corporate governance guidelines for the Company, (c) oversee the evaluation of the Board, (d) evaluate and monitor succession planning for the Company’s senior management and (e) oversee the Company’s environmental, social and governance (“ESG”) initiatives, along with sustainability activities and practices.

II. RESPONSIBILITIES

In addition to such other duties as the Board may from time to time assign, the Committee shall:

- (a) identify individuals qualified to become Board members, consistent with criteria approved by the Board;
- (b) consider any candidates for Board membership, including those recommended by the Company’s shareholders pursuant to the procedures described in the Company’s proxy statement and in compliance with the Company’s Third Amended and Restated Memorandum and Articles of Association, as may be amended from time to time (the “Articles”);
- (c) recommend to the Board the director nominees for election by the shareholders at each meeting of shareholders at which directors will be elected and recommend to the Board nominees to fill any vacancies and newly created directorships on the Board;
- (d) make an initial determination, monitor and report to the Board whether or not each director and prospective director is “independent” and ensure that a majority of the Board is “independent” as required and in accordance with any applicable requirements of the Nasdaq Global Select Market and any other legal or regulatory requirements of the Company or its subsidiaries;
- (e) determine and report to the Board whether a director qualifies as an “audit committee financial expert” as defined by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”);

- (f) work with senior management to provide an orientation and continuing education program for directors;
- (g) develop and recommend to the Board a set of corporate governance guidelines applicable to the Company and review and reassess the adequacy of such guidelines at least annually and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval;
- (h) at least annually review with management the Company's various compliance programs;
- (i) oversee the evaluation of the Board;
- (j) periodically review the criteria for the selection of new directors to serve on the Board and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval;
- (k) periodically review and recommend changes to the Articles as they relate to corporate governance issues;
- (l) periodically review and make recommendations regarding the composition and size of the Board;
- (m) periodically review and make recommendations regarding the composition, size, purpose, structure, operations and charter of each of the Board's committees, including the creation of additional committees or elimination of existing committees;
- (n) annually recommend to the Board the chairpersons and members of each of the Board's committees;
- (o) oversee director orientation and continuing education programs;
- (p) develop and annually review, evaluate and monitor succession planning for the Company's and its subsidiaries' senior management members, including the chief executive officer, president, chief underwriting officer and chief financial officer, unless the Board has delegated this duty to itself or another committee thereof;
- (q) at least annually review policies for communications with shareholders, and make recommendations for modifications to the Board as deemed appropriate;
- (r) at least annually review the Company's Amended and Restated Internal Process for Handling Communications to Directors, and make recommendations for modifications to the Board as deemed appropriate;
- (s) at least annually review the Company's Amended and Restated Policy Prohibiting Insider Trading and Unauthorized Disclosure of Information to Others, and make recommendations for modifications to the Board as deemed appropriate;
- (t) at least annually review with management the impact of the Company's business operations and business practices with respect to issues such as environment, health and safety, corporate citizenship, public policy and community involvement and related matters, and make recommendations to the Board as deemed appropriate;

(u) oversee the Company's policy, strategy and disclosure of ESG matters for the purposes of risk management, stewardship and sustainability, including (i) the overall ESG strategy; (ii) the Company's programs; (iii) the Company's formal reporting on ESG and sustainability matters; and (iv) the Company's policies in specific areas such as environmental sustainability. Human capital management is a component of the Company's ESG program, including diversity, equity, and inclusion, human rights, talent development and employee engagement. The Committee shall receive periodic updates from the Company's management responsible for ESG and sustainability matters and shall provide recommendations on ESG and sustainability strategy to the Board;

(v) conduct an annual performance evaluation of the Committee;

(w) review requests from directors and executive officers for waivers from the Company's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and make recommended changes to the Board, as necessary;

(x) annually oversee the composition and function of other Board committees. The Committee shall annually review the criteria for membership on each committee and recommend changes to the Board as necessary. The Committee shall annually recommend to the Board director nominees for each committee. The Committee shall review the purpose, structure and operations of each committee and recommend changes to the Board as necessary. The Committee shall oversee the reporting of each committee to the Board. The Committee shall make suggestions to the Board regarding additional committees and changes to, or eliminations of, any committee and propose to the Board any additional policies and procedures in light of changing business, legislative, regulatory, legal or other conditions as necessary;

(y) annually review on behalf of the Board the charters and standing agendas of each committee and make recommendations to the Board in connection with the Board's action thereon, as necessary;

(z) assist the Board in the development and maintenance of a director succession plan;

(aa) review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter on an annual basis and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval; and

(bb) periodically review corporate governance trends and, where appropriate, make recommendations to the Board on the governance of the Company.

III. COMPOSITION

The Committee shall be comprised of at least three members (including a Chairperson), all of whom shall be "independent directors," as such term is defined in the rules and regulations of the Nasdaq Stock Market Inc. The members of the Committee and the Chairperson shall be selected not less frequently than annually by the Board and serve at the pleasure of the Board. A Committee member (including the Chairperson) may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by the Board. The Board may designate one or more independent directors as alternate members of the Committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member or members at any meetings of the Committee.

IV. MEETING REQUIREMENTS

The Committee shall meet as often as necessary, but at least once each year, to enable it to fulfill its responsibilities. The Committee shall meet at the call of its Chairperson. The Committee may meet by telephone conference call or by any other means permitted by law or the Articles. A majority of the members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum. The Committee shall act on the affirmative vote of a majority of members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present. Subject to the Articles, the Committee may act by unanimous written consent of all of its members in lieu of a meeting. The Committee shall determine its own rules and procedures, including designation of a chairperson pro tempore in the absence of the Chairperson, and designation of a secretary. The secretary need not be a member of the Committee and shall attend the Committee's meetings and prepare minutes. The Committee shall keep written minutes of its meetings, which shall be recorded or filed with the books and records of the Company. Any member of the Board shall be provided with copies of such Committee minutes if requested.

The Committee may ask members of management, employees, outside counsel, or others whose advice and counsel are relevant to the issues then being considered by the Committee to attend any meetings and to provide such pertinent information as the Committee may request. The Committee shall have authority to delegate any of its responsibilities to one or more subcommittees as the Committee may from time to time deem appropriate.

The Chairperson of the Committee shall be responsible for leadership of the Committee, including preparing the agenda, presiding over Committee meetings, making Committee assignments and reporting the Committee's actions to the Board from time to time (but at least once each year) as requested by the Board.

V. AUTHORITY

The Committee has the authority, to the extent it deems appropriate, to retain one or more search firms to be used to identify director candidates. The Committee shall have the sole authority to retain and terminate any such consulting firm, and to approve the firm's fees and other retention terms. The Committee shall also have the authority, to the extent it deems necessary or appropriate, to retain other advisors. The Company will provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of compensation to any search firm or other advisors employed by the Committee.

VI. MISCELLANEOUS

Nothing contained in this Charter is intended to expand applicable standards of liability under statutory or regulatory requirements for the directors of the Company or members of the Committee. The purposes and responsibilities outlined in this Charter are meant to serve as guidelines rather than as inflexible rules and the Committee is encouraged to adopt such additional procedures and standards as it deems necessary from time to time to fulfill its responsibilities. This Charter, and any amendments thereto, shall be displayed on the Company's web site and a printed copy of such shall be made available to any shareholder of the Company who requests it.

Adopted by the Nominating, Governance and Corporate Responsibility Committee on July 26, 2022 and approved by the Board of Directors of the Company on July 26, 2022.
